

Thank you for your gift of hope. Every week we post a Bible verse on our Facebook page (facebook.com/bchkids). The verse for the first week in September is a powerful verse of blessing. It reads

Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Romans 15:13

As I reflect on this verse, I am picturing a cycle of hope. The hope that God brings is through the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This hope didn't begin when I was born again, but rather long before I was born! As we lean into this hope, it challenges us to live outside of ourselves, give sacrificially, and be compassionate for those less fortunate. When we are obedient to Him, what do we find? Among other things we find peace and joy. Enjoying these fruits amid life's challenges, we can't help but cling to the God of hope. And thus, the cycle continues.

As you give to Bringing Children Hope, you are passing on a sign of God's hope to others. Hope can be found in a Myanmar home celebrating God's blessing during war conditions. In Zambia, it is in the opportunity to learn in a school setting that values each student. In NW Indiana, hope is given to a desperate mom searching for help with her newborn baby. Because of your giving, you help us spread hope in a mighty way.

As you give sacrificially, we pray that not only their needs are met, but that they truly embrace the hope that Christ gave them when He died on the cross and rose again. Blessings to you as you give from which the God of hope has blessed you!

With Gratitude,
